DR. JULIO FRENK

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL AUTÓNOMA DE MÉXICO, 1979

A fourth-generation physician whose paternal grandparents fled Germany in the early 1930s to build a new life in Mexico, Julio Frenk catalyzed his deep gratitude for the kindness of strangers into a lifelong mission to improve the health, education, and well-being of people around the world.

Dr. Frenk became the sixth president of the University of Miami in August of 2015. He also holds academic appointments as Professor of Public Health Sciences at the Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine and as Professor of Health Sector Management and Policy at the School of Business Administration.

Prior to joining the University of Miami, he was the dean of the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development, a joint appointment with the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Julio Frenk served as the Minister of Health of Mexico from 2000 to 2006. There he pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal coverage, known as Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for more than 55 million previously uninsured Mexicans.

He was the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of its kind in the developing world. He also served as executive director in charge of Evidence and Information for Policy at the World Health Organization and as senior fellow in the global health program of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, among other leadership positions.

Dr. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National University of Mexico, as well as a master of public health and a joint Ph.D. in Medical Care Organization and in Sociology from the University of Michigan. He has received honorary degrees from seven universities.

His scholarly production, which includes over 160 articles in academic journals, as well as many books and book chapters, has been cited more than 15,000 times. In addition, he has written three best-selling novels for youngsters explaining the functions of the human body.

He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the U.S. National Academy of Medicine, and the National Academy of Medicine of Mexico. He serves on the boards of the United Nations Foundation and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. He has received numerous recognitions, including the Clinton Global Citizen Award for changing the way practitioners and policy makers across the world think about health, the Bouchet Medal for Outstanding Leadership presented by Yale University for promoting diversity in graduate education, and the Welch-Rose Award for Distinguished Service from the Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health.

DAN RADAKOVICH

VICE PRESIDENT/ DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Dan Radakovich was named the 14th Director of Athletics in University of Miami history on December 8, 2021, returning to his graduate school alma mater.

Radakovich, who last served as Director of Athletics at Clemson for nine years, launched his career at UM in 1983 as the Hurricanes' athletic business manager, an experience which charted a course that has now spanned seven schools and 30 years as a visionary leader in college athletics.

"This is a significant moment for the future of athletics at the University of Miami," University President Julio Frenk said upon Radakovich's hire.

In his first six months at UM, Radakovich has worked with campus leaders to chart an ambitious course for Miami Athletics with respect to various aspects. He has hired two new head coaches (golf, rowing) and extended the contracts of five others. He has worked closely with new football head coach Mario Cristobal to ramp up recruiting, evaluation, sports science and creative resources. He has presided over a department that produced its 84th individual national champion (diver Mia Vallée); its first men's basketball Elite Eight appearance; its first ACC Tournament final appearance for women's basketball; its fourth women's track and field ACC outdoor title; its highest seasonending women's tennis ranking since 2013; and the rowing team's first CRCA poll ranking in program history.

Miami was one of just two schools (along with UNC) this past season to have its football team qualify for a bowl game, its men's basketball team reach the Sweet 16 and its baseball team host a regional. In addition, UM was one of just three schools (along with Michigan and Tennessee) to have its teams advance to the postseason in football, men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball.

At Clemson, Radakovich oversaw the most successful stretch in Tigers football history as the program won two national championships (2016, 2018), six ACC titles and made six College Football Playoff appearances.

Radakovich continuously led the Tigers athletic department to high achievements, both on the field and in the classroom.

Clemson set a school record in the NCAA's most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report, posting a 95 percent score, which also tied for first in the ACC amongst public schools. Clemson student-athletes recorded nine semesters with a 3.0 GPA or higher.

Highlighting the athletic year, the football program claimed the ACC title and appeared in the College Football Playoff, the men's soccer program claimed the 2020 ACC championship, and the women's soccer program advanced to the Elite Eight. Additionally, Radakovich oversaw the development of the softball program at Clemson, which officially began in the spring of 2020. That program earned the ACC regular-season championship in 2021 and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2017-18, Clemson became the first school in history to reach the College Football Playoff, advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and host a baseball regional in the same season.

Prior to his arrival, Radakovich amassed experience serving in significant athletic administrative roles at Georgia Tech, LSU, American, South Carolina, Long Beach State and UM. Radakovich, a native of Aliquippa, Pa., is a 1980 graduate of Indiana (Pa.), where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance. He was also a football letterman and student coach with the Crimson Hawk program, and he was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2021. He previously was enshrined into the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

Radakovich and his wife, Marcie, have two sons, Christian, and Grant, who the latter was a tight end on Clemson's 2016 national championship team.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

Hometown: Miami, Fla. College: Miami, 1993
Birthdate: September 24, 1970 Wife: Jessica
Children: Mario Mateo, Rocco

Mario Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach in December 2021 by University of Miami president Dr. Julio Frenk.

One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returns to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. He is the only coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power Five conference championship game in each of the past three seasons.

Cristobal brings more than 20 years of FBS coaching experience to Coral Gables, including 10 as a head coach. He compiled a 35-13 record at Oregon, leading the Ducks to consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2020. Oregon advanced to three straight conference championship games from 2019 to 2021 and earned bowl-game appearances in each of Cristobal's seasons in Eugene, highlighted by a Rose Bowl victory that capped a 12-win season and No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press and AFCA Coaches polls in 2019. Cristobal was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

Over Cristobal's four seasons in Eugene, Oregon players earned 44 all-conference selections and 13 players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections in each of the past two drafts. During his tenure as both an assistant and head coach at Oregon, two players—Noah Sewell and Kayvon Thibodeaux—earned Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, and three players—Thibodeaux, Penei Sewell, and Tyrell Crosby—earned the Morris Trophy, awarded to the Pac-12's best offensive and defensive linemen. Cristobal served as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator, and offensive line coach during the 2017 season before being elevated to head coach.

HEAD COACH MARIO CRISTOBAL

Cristobal's national title-winning pedigree isn't limited to his time as a player. At Alabama, where he served as assistant head coach, offensive line coach, and recruiting coordinator, he helped lead the Crimson Tide to the national championship in 2015 and a runner-up finish the following season.

During his four years in Tuscaloosa, from 2013 to 2016, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft and, with Cristobal's tutelage, the 2015 offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in the nation.

Considered one of the country's elite recruiters and evaluators of talent, Cristobal, during his tenures at both Alabama and Oregon, helped assemble national top-15 recruiting classes eight straight years, with seven of those classes rated in the top 10. The 2018 class at Alabama produced three NFL first-round draft picks. At Oregon, he constructed the Pac-12's top-rated recruiting classes in 2019, 2020, and 2021.

Cristobal's move to Miami brings his coaching career full circle. A son of South Florida who played prep football at nearby Christopher Columbus High School, he launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Miami from 1998 to 2000 under head coach Butch Davis. He served as an assistant coach at Rutgers from 2001 to 2003 and then returned to Miami as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006 under head coach Larry Coker.

In 2007, Cristobal was named head coach at Florida International University, becoming the first Cuban American head coach in FBS history. He inherited a struggling FIU program that had been winless the year before his arrival and, in just his fourth season, led it to the Sun Belt Conference title and a bowl-game victory. That season, 2010, he was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year. In total, he coached six seasons at FIU, from 2007 to 2012.

Cristobal, who played his Hurricanes career under coaches Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson, was an All-Big East selection in 1992. He is a double-alumnus of the University of Miami, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University. Cristobal was born in Miami on Sept. 24, 1970.

He and his wife, Jessica, married in June 2006 and are the parents of two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.

THE HURRICANES

It began in controversy. Some reports say the players on the 1927 football team held a team meeting to select Hurricanes, hoping they would sweep away opponents just as the devastating storm did on September 16, 1926. Another version holds that Jack Bell, a columnist for the old Miami News, asked end Porter Norris of the 1926 team what the team should be called. Told that the local dignitaries and University officials wanted to name the team for a local flora or fauna, Norris said the players wouldn't stand for it and suggested "Hurricanes" since the opening game had been postponed by such a storm.

ORANGE, GREEN AND WHITE

UM's school colors were selected in 1926. The colors of the Florida orange tree represent UM. Orange symbolizes the fruit of the tree, green represents the leaves and white, the blossoms.

THE U

In 1973, UM's Athletic Federation, the fund-raising arm of the athletic department at the time, commissioned a local public relations expert to develop a distinctive logo. The University had gone several years with a variety of helmet and uniform changes and the Federation noted that a number of major colleges have the initials UM. Miami designer Bill Bodenhamer suggested the "U" idea, which lent itself to distinctive logos for each sport as well as slogans like "U gotta believe" and "U is great."

SEBASTIAN THE IBIS

Folklore maintains that the ibis, a symbol of knowledge found in the Everglades and Egypt, is the last sign of wildlife to take shelter before a hurricane and the first to reappear after the storm. The local marsh bird was considered UM's first unofficial mascot when the school yearbook adopted the name "Ibis" in 1926. Its popularity grew among the students during the 1950s. In 1957, San Sebastian Hall, a residence hall on campus, sponsored an Ibis entry in the homecoming celebration. The next year, student John Stormont performed at games in an ibis costume that was glued, sewn and pinned together and was the forerunner of today's bird. The Ibis has become one of the most recognizable college mascots in the United States.

THE "SMOKE"

The traditional Hurricane "smoke" entrance began in the 1950s in the Orange Bowl. In an attempt to increase fan interest, UM transportation director Bob Nalette came up with the idea of using fire extinguishers to produce the now-famous smoke that the Hurricanes run through as they enter the field at Hard Rock Stadium. The original setup included flashing lights, two large hurricane flags and a tape of a hurricane blasted over the loudspeaker while a pipe welded together by Nalette blew smoke. The flags and lights are now gone, but the smoke and sound still remain.

CHEERLEADERS

The University of Miami cheerleaders are the catalyst for school spirit. Along with cheering at both home and away athletic contests, the squads are a strong public relations arm for the University. The University of Miami has two squads: All-Girl and Co-Ed. Under the direction of head coach Cecilia Esteban, a former Miami cheerleader, both cheer squads are consistently rated among the nation's best.

SUNSATIONS

Now in their 26th year of entertaining fans, the University of Miami Sunsations dance team is a squad of enthusiastic and talented performers. Their reputation for excellence has grown both locally and nationally. The Sunsations, coached by Cecilia Esteban, perform at many charitable and community service events in addition to Hurricane football and basketball games.

FOUR FINGERS

At the beginning of the fourth quarter at every home football game, Miami players and fans can be seen holding up four fingers. The sign indicates their belief that a game is won in that crucial final period. True Hurricane fans and players use the sign as a symbol that they own that last quarter.

LIL' JOE AND TOUCHDOWN TOMMY

"Lil' Joe" was a forerunner to the present "Touchdown Tommy" cannon fired by the Sigma Chi fraternity after each UM score.

HURRICANE WALK

The Hurricane Walk is a pre-game tradition that takes place before each home game at Hard Rock Stadium. Fans gather near the SW Gate to cheer on the Canes as they arrive and get them hyped up for the game.

HONORARY CAPTAIN/ HURRICANE SIREN

Each football game, the Miami Hurricane faithful turn to the honorary captain to bring the Hurricanes on to the field. Whether it is a notable alumnus or distinguished member of the community, the honorary captain cranks the Hurricane Warning Siren, filling the stadium with the recognizable scream of the storm warning siren. The honorary captain brings the sense of tradition and excitement that will aid the Hurricanes to victory in the coming game.

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

HISTORY: Founded 1925; classes began October 1926.

OVERVIEW: The University is a private not-for-profit institution and has been classified by the Carnegie Commission as a Doctoral University with Highest Research Activity (R1). The University's 11 colleges and schools offer the following areas of study: 133 bachelors, 139 masters, 68 doctoral (64 research/scholarship and 4 professional practice).

ACCREDITATION: Institutional membership accreditation is maintained with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. In addition, the University of Miami holds accreditation from 19 other professional agencies that recognize specific programs.

FACULTY AND ACADEMIC LIFE: Of the full-time regular faculty, 97 percent hold a doctorate or other terminal degree, and 85 percent of all full-time faculty have a terminal degree. Of the full-time tenure-track faculty who are eligible for tenure, 80 percent are tenured. The student-to-faculty ratio is approximately 12 to 1. Fifty percent of classes for degree undergraduates have 16 or fewer students; 75 percent have 26 or fewer students.

DUAL-DEGREE PROGRAMS: UM offers dual-degree programs, combining undergraduate and graduate study, in biochemistry & molecular biology, computer science, exercise physiology, Latin American studies, law, and marine geology.

NEW FRESHMAN STANDINGS:

About 30 percent of new freshmen graduated in the top five percent of their high school class, 46 percent in the top 10 percent. Mean ACT is 30 and SAT is 1315*.

*Mid-range mean based on official SAT component scores reported to external entities (incl. IPEDS, CDS, US News, etc.)

HONORS PROGRAM AND HONORS SOCIETIES:

Over 800 undergraduates participate in the Foote Fellows Honors Program. Forty-one academic honor societies have chapters at the University.

GREEK FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES:

More than 2090 degree undergraduate students are members of the Greek Life community, including upper-class new members. Because the University defers membership in a sorority or fraternity for first-year students until after the student has earned at least 12 hours of academic credit, first-year students are not included in this count. Thirty fraternities and sororities have chapters at the University.

STUDY ABROAD: Students can apply their financial aid and scholarship to semester programs, including UM semesters on location in Buenos Aires, Argentina; Prague, Czech Republic; Paris, France; Rome, Italy; Galapagos Islands, Ecuador; Cape Town, South Africa; Shanghai, China; and Manipal, India, as well as exchange-partner programs in over 35 countries. UM faculty-led study abroad programs take place during intersession, spring break, and summer.

POST BACCALAUREATE PLANS:

Approximately 33 percent of seniors graduating in May 2017 reported plans to attend graduate school.

ALUMNI: UM alumni live in all 50 states and 154 countries. Over 96,110 reside in Florida, including over 51,510 in Miami-Dade County. There are over 202,800 alumni in UM's history.

SPORTS: The Hurricanes compete in Division I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and are members of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Men's competition includes baseball (1982, 1985, 1999, 2001 NCAA champions), basketball (NCAA Sweet 16 in 2000, 2013, 2016), cross country, diving, football (1983, 1987, 1989, 1991, 2001 national champions), tennis (2006 and 2009 Sweet 16), indoor track and field, and outdoor track and field.

COMPUTING FACILITIES: The University of Miami computing facilities host enterprise and departmental systems in support of academic, clinical, and research initiatives, including email, web hosting, distributed file systems, cloud computing and storage, and high-performance computing systems. There are over 60 computer labs located in the residential colleges, libraries, schools, and colleges. The University provides pervasive indoor and outdoor wireless network coverage for faculty, students, and staff throughout the Coral Gables, Miller School (Medical), and Rosenstiel campuses for access to University systems and the Internet. UM's network infrastructure supports over 46,000 devices connected to the wired network, and over 150,000 unique wireless devices (including guests) on a monthly basis.

DEVELOPMENT: In FY17, contributions reached $222.1 million in total private cash, gifts, and grants. In FY16, UM ranked 33rd among the research, doctoral, masters, liberal arts, and specialized private and public universities reporting to the Council for Aid to Education.

CAMPUSES AND FACILITIES

Three UM campuses and other facilities incorporate over 200 University-owned buildings totaling over 11.8 million gross square feet on over 500 acres of land.

CORAL GABLES:

The Main campus, located on 239-acres in suburban Coral Gables, houses two colleges and seven schools with 118 buildings totaling 4,639,554 million gross square feet (GSF) of academic facilities and 1,359,759 GSF in structured parking.

Several new facilities have opened on the Coral Gables campus – The Lennar Foundation Medical Center, a full-service outpatient, diagnostic and imaging center, providing for men's and women's health, student health, and bringing the premier medical programs and services of Bascom Palmer Eye Institute, Sports Medicine and Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer to the general community, a Central Utility Plant to serve current and future projects, and the Merrick Parking Garage providing over 860 parking spaces for campus needs. On the academic side, the university has completed the Miller BuildLab, an outdoor covered space for model building for the School of Architecture and the School of Nursing Simulation Hospital Addition, offering state-of-the-art teaching and learning for health care professionals.

Projects under construction include the Thomas P. Murphy Design Studio Building for the School of Architecture, providing new space for teaching design, the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility, allowing year-round practice under cover for the Athletics program, and new Student Housing expected to open in 2019 with 1,100 beds for students and multipurpose indoor and outdoor spaces for an enhanced campus living and learning experience.

Upon completion, these projects will add three additional buildings and 621,536 SF to our campus.

Several new facilities are in the early planning stages for Arts and Sciences and Engineering, with a new Science and Engineering building and a new performance and practice recital hall for the School of Music. The university continues to study future upgrades for student housing.

MEDICAL CAMPUS:

The Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine campus consists of 72 acres within the 153-acre University of Miami/Jackson Memorial Medical Center. The medical campus includes the University of Miami Health System (UHealth), which is comprised of Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, Bascom Palmer Eye Institute, and UHealth Tower, operating within the University of Miami Hospital and Clinics (UMHC). About three dozen UHealth outpatient clinics are located in Miami-Dade, Broward, Palm Beach and Collier counties. The Lennar Foundation Medical Center, a 206,000-square-foot multispecialty ambulatory care facility, opened on UM's Coral Gables campus in December of 2016. Miller School faculty conduct more than 1,800 research projects and UHealth physicians have more than 2 million patient encounters each year.

ROSENSTIEL SCHOOL CAMPUS:

The Rosenstiel School of Marine & Atmospheric Science is one of the leading oceanographic research and education institutions in the nation. Located on an 18-acre waterfront campus on Virginia Key in Biscayne Bay, the School's main campus is part of a 65-acre marine research and education park that includes two U.S. Department of Commerce National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) research laboratories and the MAST Academy, the Miami-Dade County magnet high school for marine science and technology. Recently, we improved the infrastructure on our Virginia Key campus with the addition of our new 86,000 square-foot Marine Technology and Life Sciences Seawater Complex. The complex includes the one-of-a-kind Alfred C. Glassell Jr. SUrge-STructure-Atmosphere-INteraction (SUSTAIN) building capable of simulating 3-D wind-wave flow and surge produced by Category 5 hurricane force winds in complex coastal conditions. The Marine Life Sciences building, also located within the complex, provides a dedicated space for the study of marine animals, the critical connections between oceans and human health and the impacts of evolving climate on marine organisms and ecosystems. This complex was made possible thanks to a federal grant from the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), in addition to generous gifts. The Rosenstiel School operates CSTARS (Center for Southeastern Tropical Advanced Remote Sensing) located on Richmond Facility in south Miami-Dade County, which conducts research with remotely sensed data received from earth-orbiting satellite systems. Our research, education and outreach infrastructure are strengthened by the acquisition of Broad Key, a 63-acre island located in the Florida Keys. The facility provides our students and a cadre of our world-class scientists with an ideal platform to launch field courses and conduct research that will help us to better understand Florida's complex marine ecosystems.

RICHMOND FACILITY:

The Richmond Facility, established in 2001, is a 76-acre site that houses research facilities for the Rosenstiel School's Center for Southeastern Tropical Advanced Remote Sensing (CSTARS) and Richmond Satellite Operations Center (RSOC).

MIAMI DOMINATES FIRST ROUND

Since 1984, the University of Miami has produced more NFL first-round draft picks than all but one university. Miami also had at least one player drafted in the first round in 14 straight NFL drafts between 1995 and 2008 – the longest streak in NFL history. The following chart lists the universities that have produced the most first-round draft picks since 1984:

1. Ohio State 53
2. Miami (FL) 51
3. Alabama 47
4. Florida 43
5. Florida State 41

THE MIRACLE IN MIAMI

Less than a decade removed from a period of uncertainty in which there was open talk of dropping the football program, the University of Miami Hurricanes stunned the college football world by defeating the top-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers, 31-30, in the 1984 Orange Bowl Classic on Jan. 1, 1984.

The victory was monumental — for UM football and for college football in general. It was monumental not only because the Cornhuskers were widely considered to be among the most powerful teams in college football history, but it also heralded the dawn of a new dynasty in the sport from a program that had been all but dead just a few short years earlier. That victory — combined with losses by second-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl and Illinois in the Rose Bowl — vaulted the Hurricanes into the top spot in the final national rankings.

This was the first national title team without a single player making an All-America first team voted by AP, UPI, the Football Writers Association or the College Football Coaches Association.

One of the keys was a melting pot offensive line — a Canadian (center Ian Sinclair), a Cuban-American (guard Juan Comendeiro), an African-American (guard Alvin Ward), an Italian-American (tackle Paul Bertucelli) and an Irish-American (tackle Dave Heffernan).

Miami was only the second national title team to gain more passing yards than rushing yards.

"It's a tribute to a lot of gutty players and a real team effort," head coach Howard Schnellenberger said. "We've got a lot of overachievers on our team — or else there has been a poor job of selection done by the All-American selectors."

DOMINANCE FROM START TO FINISH

The Hurricanes were supposed to be rebuilding. Reloading was more accurate. This Miami team was supposed be the lull before the storm of 1988 and 1989. After all, the Hurricanes had lost five starters on offense from a team that had come within a whisper of a national title in 1985 and a 1986 squad that was considered among the best ever, only to lose its title shot in the Fiesta Bowl.

But this team was more offensively balanced than the previous season's juggernaut and, with nine starters returning to an underrated defense, the Hurricanes were a more well-rounded team altogether. Ranked 10th in the preseason Associated Press rankings, this team quickly showed it would be better than advertised.

Miami ripped rival Florida in the season opener, then embarrassed Arkansas on the Razorbacks' home field. The season's third game was a classic. Being dominated by fourth-ranked Florida State, 19-3, late in the third quarter, Miami launched one of its greatest comebacks. The Hurricanes scored three lightning-quick touchdowns: a 49-yard bomb from Steve Walsh to Melvin Bratton, a 26-yarder from Walsh to Michael Irvin (plus a two-point conversion to tie it at 19), then a 73-yard strike from Walsh to Irvin for the lead with 2:22 remaining. Miami would have to stop an FSU two-pointer to hold for a 26-25 victory.

There seemed to be no stopping these Hurricanes after that. Miami rolled through the remainder of the regular season, blanking 10th-ranked Notre Dame (24-0) and surviving a scare from eighth-ranked South Carolina (20-16) to set up a matchup with top-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl Classic on New Year's Day.

> "WE PLAYED OUR WAY TO THIS CHAMPIONSHIP. WE HAVE THE BEST RECORD VERSUS ANYBODY IN THE COUNTRY . . . WE BEAT OKLAHOMA THREE IN A ROW, FLORIDA STATE AND NOTRE DAME THREE IN A ROW, FLORIDA A COUPLE . . . WHAT IS SWEETEST IS THAT WE DID IT AS A TEAM. WE LOST STARTERS AND HAD OTHER GUYS COME IN AND PLAYED MAGNIFICENTLY."
> – Jimmy Johnson, Head Coach

The Hurricanes bottled up OU's wishbone attack, holding the Sooners to just 179 yards on the ground (OU came in averaging 428.8). Elation for Miami was frustration for OU — the Sooners' only three losses over the last three seasons had come to the Hurricanes.

TWO ERICKSONS AND A TENACIOUS "D"

By the time head coach Dennis Erickson arrived in Coral Gables to take over the UM football program prior to the 1989 season, Miami football had established itself as the "Team of the '80s". With a new coaching staff in place, Miami switched to a one-back offense, but the Hurricanes remained in their trademark 4-3 defense and had the talent on both sides of the ball to maintain their level of excellence. Twelve starters returned, but the loss of quarterback Steve Walsh, running back Cleveland Gary, linebacker Randy Shannon and cornerback Bubba McDowell would be felt. Nonetheless, the Hurricanes reloaded and ran off six victories to start the season.

Quarterback Craig Erickson was lost for three games in the middle of the season — including a 24-10 loss at Florida State — before returning and leading the Hurricanes on an impressive stretch run.

Miami's defense didn't allow a touchdown for one 10-quarter stretch during the regular season, held six opponents without a touchdown and allowed just 9.3 points per game. Miami rebounded from the FSU loss to whip their remaining opponents by an average margin of 18 points, including a 27-10 trouncing of defending national champion and top-ranked Notre Dame (27-10), ending the Irish's 23-game win streak (the seventh season in a row in which UM had defeated a No. 1-ranked team). That victory clinched a Sugar Bowl berth against seventh-ranked Alabama. Miami dispatched Alabama by a deceptively close 33-25 score in New Orleans and moved into the top spot of the rankings when Notre Dame knocked off top-ranked Colorado in the Orange Bowl, giving the Hurricanes their third national title in seven seasons.

GINO, THE RUTHLESS POSSE AND WIDE RIGHT I

A combustible offense, a rock-solid defense and the nation's best special teams — by 1991 all these traits had become synonymous with Miami football and this team represented the zenith of its era. Quarterback Gino Torretta, a group of skill players nicknamed "The Ruthless Posse," and a linebacker corps that ranks among the greatest ever assembled, led these Hurricanes.

Miami started the season by ripping Arkansas on the road and dominating a Houston offense that had terrorized opponents for four seasons up to that game. Their first stiff challenge came against Penn State on Oct. 12 and the Hurricanes, behind staunch defense and big plays by Horace Copeland (80-yard scoring catch) and Kevin Williams (91-yard punt return for a TD) held off the Nittany Lions.

Two challenges in November punctuated the season. First was the annual grudge match in Tallahassee, Fla., against Florida State. In what became known as "Wide Right I" the Hurricanes erased a 16-7 deficit in the final period on a 45-yard field goal by Carlos Huerta and a one-yard run by Larry Jones with 3:01 left to take a 17-16 lead. FSU marched down for a potential game-winning field goal in the closing seconds, but Gerry Thomas' 34-yard attempt was wide right.

Miami escaped another close call a week later, slipping by Boston College on the road. The Hurricanes defense held off a late BC drive in the final seconds to preserve the 19-14 victory. A blowout of San Diego State clinched an Orange Bowl berth.

> "TO WIN ONE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP IS AMAZING. FOR GUYS TO WIN THEIR SECOND IN THREE YEARS, THAT HASN'T BEEN ACCOMPLISHED BY MANY. THAT'S WHAT MAKES THIS CHAMPIONSHIP SPECIAL. AND IT CAME IN A SITUATION WHERE WE HAD NOT BEEN PICKED TO BE THAT GOOD. SOME PEOPLE SAID WE'D BE NO. 3 IN THE STATE OF FLORIDA."
> – Dennis Erickson, Miami Head Coach

With their fourth national title in their sights, the Hurricanes stymied the Huskers' offense as few had, limiting the Nebraska ground game to just 82 rushing yards and throwing a shutout of the Big Eight Conference champions.

The victory gave Miami the national title in the Associated Press rankings. The Hurricanes shared overall national honors with Rose Bowl champ Washington, which nudged ahead in the coaches' poll.

CHARACTER, CLASS AND POISE = CHAMPIONSHIP

The Hurricanes' fifth national championship may have been the program's most rewarding. A veteran senior class that had endured the shame of a losing season in 1997 and had rebuilt the program — inside and out — led this team. Miami returned to the top in 2001 by showing character, class and poise.

How good was this team? Many argue it may have been the greatest college football team ever assembled. This team beat opponents by the largest average margin in UM history (33.2 points per game), produced the biggest two-game whippings of any pair of ranked teams in history by defeating Syracuse and Washington by a combined 124-7, set a new UM record for scoring and featured a defense that scored eight touchdowns and led the nation in pass defense, scoring defense and turnover margin.

Throw in a kicking game that featured one of the nation's finest punters and a placekicker who led the nation in field goals and it is hard to argue against the 2001 edition. An astounding seven Hurricanes were named to at least one All-America team's first unit. Six players were finalists for national awards, led by Outland Trophy winner Bryant McKinnie at offensive tackle and Maxwell Award winning quarterback Ken Dorsey.

The 2001 Hurricanes started with a stunning rout of Penn State on the road before the largest crowd (109,313) ever to see a Miami game. They ended Florida State's 54-game unbeaten streak in Tallahassee, Fla., with a resounding 49-27 whipping.

The stars were numerous. On offense: quarterback Ken Dorsey, tailback Clinton Portis (1,200 yards rushing), tight end Jeremy Shockey, an offensive line that allowed an incredibly low two sacks by the starting unit, a receivers corps led by Andre Johnson, a defensive line in which nine players could play without losing a step led by William Joseph, a linebacker corps that developed into a force and a secondary that was the nation's best, led by safety Edward Reed and cornerbacks Mike Rumph and Phillip Buchanon.

The power of this team was evident for all to see in its Rose Bowl rout of Nebraska for the national title. Miami roared to a 34-0 halftime lead, erasing any doubts about what team was college football's best in 2001.

AWARD HISTORY

- Each season the players and coaches of the University of Miami football team select a most valuable player, to be awarded the Jack Harding MVP Award at the annual football banquet.
- Presented since 1963, this honor is the highest performance-based award a Hurricanes player can attain from his teammates. The award is named for former UM head coach and athletic director Jack Harding, who coached the Hurricanes' football team from 1937-42 and 1945-47. Harding relinquished his coaching duties after the 1947 season and took over as athletic director, a post he held until his death in 1963.
- As football coach, Harding oversaw the program's rise into a major program. His 1938 team was his best, traveling to Gainesville, Fla., and handing Florida an upset loss in the first meeting between the schools. His teams posted major intersectional wins over Michigan State, Auburn, NC State, Clemson and Florida that put Miami football on the map.
- A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Harding was an accomplished athlete in his own right, lettering in football for legendary coaches Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland, in addition to earning varsity letters in baseball and basketball.
